

Hi! I'm Melissa, I am proud owner and sole operator of Sweet Obsessions Treats. As a young business owner, I've faced many challenges to get where I am today, but through every obstacle, baking & treat making has always been my passion and my outlet. What started as a love for creating sweet treats has grown into an ongoing dream of sharing that passion with my community. I'm incredibly grateful for the opportunity to bring a little extra sweetness to your day while doing what I love most.
